TWO BIG JULY EVENTS

OUR ANNUAL FOURTH OF JULY EXTRAVAGANZA!

Sunday, July 4th from 6:30pm to the end of the FIREWORKS!

There will be a CHILI COOKOFF (contact Samantha Hall if you want to bring chili, judge chili or just help out.) The HOUUSE JAM will rock out. The Chuck-wagon will be flipping burgers (regular and veggie) and hot dogs. Serving will begin around 7 pm. We will serve HOME-BREWED ROOT BEER AND GINGERALE, and, of course, you can bring your own beverages. Each family should bring a food item to share. It could be anything from chips to salads to desserts. And don't forget your lawn chairs or blankets. Frisbees, badminton??? Bring 'em on!

We've invited Sai Baba and our neighbors to the North, so it should be quite a party. It's an all-church gathering with some of the best fireworks available getting airborne around 9:30 pm. SO WHY NOT JOIN US!?!?

FRESH, THE MOVIE

Co-sponsored by Social Action and Friday Flicks Friday, July 9 at 7 pm in the sanctuary. A few years ago, we were one of the regional screening locations for "An Inconvenient Truth," otherwise known as "The Al Gore movie." FRESH is an important new documentary that is using a similar approach to reach its audience. It is being shown in churches, schools and libraries all over America. As of this writing, we are hosting the only scheduled showing in North Texas. It is being energetically promoted to the wider community.

Patrick's Ponderings "Barn Swallows and Summer Meditations"

The Summer Solstice, the longest day of the year is just past and even as we expect the mounting heat of the Texas summer, our daylight begins to shorten towards the Autumn. It is a time of activity and fun. And it is a time to take much needed siestas, and be still in the swirling heat of our lives. It is a time and opportunity to meditate and reflect on being present to the important things of our lives; to re-discover our true priorities. The samples or examples of water we bring to co-mingle in August are literal and symbolic reminders of what we have been giving the energy of our lives to over the summer months.

Over the last couple of months my wife and I watched as a pair of barn swallows chose our back porch rafters to make a nest and start a family. We can see them and the four rapidly growing chicks from our kitchen table. It is amazing and wonderful to so easily encounter the miraculous. This is often the case with the Holy, that it is present even in our own back porches and kitchens.

I have heard that our Ingathering Ceremony can sometimes seem like a parade of one-upmanship on "what I did with my summer vacation" The Water Communion or Ingathering Service we celebrate each year is to be a celebration of our being a part of our faith community, and of the resources and gifts of our lives and being that we bring together to share. Just as mamma and daddy barn swallow went out to find the things they needed to build their nest, they are now going out and finding new things to feed their growing family. It is not only where we went and what we did, but what new or renewed parts of our selves do we bring back to our shared lives together.

As you go about your summer, I ask you to take time to be present to your selves and each other; to meditate restfully. As our hymnal reading # 547 by Robert Weston reminds us, "To think what we have been and as we are/ Still yet have to become."

Have a great summer and I will see you in August.

Blessings, Patrick

FRESH celebrates the farmers, thinkers and business people across America who are re-inventing our food system. Forging healthier, sustainable alternatives, they offer a practical vision of our food and our planet's future. FRESH showcases real people first and foremost, connecting audiences not with facts and figures or apocalyptic policy analysis, but with personal stories of change.

The President's Corner

Sarah Reiling

Summer time is buzzing along here at church with activities for everyone!

Erma Bombeck once said, "You have to love a nation that celebrates its independence every July 4th, not with a parade of guns, tanks, and soldiers who file by the White House in a show of strength and muscle, but with family picnics where kids throw Frisbees, the potato salad gets iffy, and the flies die from happiness. You may think you have overeaten, but it is patriotism." Come celebrate your patriotism at Community UU Church with the annual 4th of July Picnic and 1st annual Chili Cook-off. Bring sides and desserts to share, lawn games to play and blankets and chairs to sit on. The evening will start at 6:30 with dinner served at 7:00. The festivities will wrap up with the City of Plano fireworks display.

Once again this year, adult religious education continues through the summer months. If the rest of the year has been too hectic, the slower pace of summer may be just the time learn some new things and have some midweek fellowship. Check the schedule in the newsletter and weekly Thursday email for class listings, dates and times.

The collection of food items for My Friends House, a Plano children's shelter continues this month. The grocery cart in the front foyer is available for you to fill with crackers, juice boxes, animal crackers, and other non perishable food items. Please, no items with peanuts or peanut butter, since many children are allergic to peanuts. There is a complete list of items need by the shelter in the weekly Thursday email. Let's do our part to make sure that no child in Plano goes hungry this summer.

Peace and justice,
Sarah

SWUUSI,

Susan Smith and Connie Goodbread as they lead us through a deeper exploration of Unitarian Universalism. Sunset talks will be presented by the Rev. Aaron White of First Unitarian Church of Dallas. Artist-in-Residence Nick Page will offer workshops and performances for all. Visit his website, www.nickmusic.org, to hear some of his inspirational music.

We continue our Ethical Eating series with more opportunities to learn about our food system. The film Fresh will be shown on Friday, July 9, at 7 P.M. as part of the Friday Night Flicks series. Fresh is a documentary film that examines the local foods movement and features urban farmer and activist Will Allen, a 2008 recipient of the MacArthur "genius" grant. It also examines others who are active in the movement and suggests ways that you can get involved.

Every Sunday through July 25

My Friend's House, the children's shelter in Plano, needs additional food for the summer since the children are out of school and the shelter must supply 3 meals a day plus snacks and juice. Community UU is sponsoring a special food drive for My Friend's House during the months of June and July. Please bring the following non-perishable items and place in the grocery cart in the church foyer:

Gold fish crackers	Cereal bars
Pretzels	Cereals: Fruit loops, corn pops, captain crunch
Cheese and crackers	Dried fruit
Animal crackers	Juice Boxes
Cookies	Sugar free Kool-Aid, lemonade, fruit punch
Granola Bars	Bottled water-small and medium sizes

Because of food allergies, the shelter cannot accept food or candy with peanuts or peanut butter.

Sunday, August 8

On Sunday morning, August 8, at 9:45 a.m., the Social Action Committee will host a screening of the film "Ending U.S.-Sponsored Torture Forever". This film, sponsored by the National Religious Campaign Against Torture, is only 20 minutes long. We will view the film and have a brief discussion following the film.

One of the suggestions that came following the May 30 service led by Pam Wat was that we form a Sunday lunch group to visit vegetarian restaurants (or restaurants that offer vegetarian options) after church. We will have our first outing on Sunday, August 8 at noon. Meet in the church lobby at noon if you want to join us.

Please do not bring any food or beverages into the sanctuary except for special occasions.

Stewardship

Good stewards abound in this congregation! As you know, we have been working hard to close our budget gap for the current fiscal year. Your generosity over the past months has reduced the gap to less than $5,000 (it may be reduced more by the time you read this.) Thank you to all who came forward to increase their pledges or make a one-time donation to sustain and nourish our church community. For others, if your circumstances change, remember, it's never too late to give.

A reminder regarding your pledge payments: If you have not yet fulfilled your 2009-10 pledge, please be sure to do so as soon as possible. Please remember to note on your check which pledge year it applies to, especially during the summer transition. If you are not sure where you stand on your pledge, the Treasurer can help you.

I am feeling much better than I did after our initial congregational meeting in May. It has been so gratifying to see how our congregation came together with good will and common purpose to resolve the budgetary issues confronting us this year. We are all so fortunate to be a part of this community and to have the privilege of contributing to its well-being. Thank you for your stewardship.

On July 13 we will discuss the first of a series of science fiction books, The Rowan by Anne McCaffrey. Even as a child, the Rowan was one of the strongest Talents ever born. Telepaths across the world had heard her mental distress calls when her family's home was suddenly destroyed . . . Years later, she became a Prime Talent, blessed with a special power which stretched across the stars. But without family, friends - or love - the Rowan's power was not enough to bring her happiness . . . Then a telepathic message came from a distant world facing an alien threat, a message sent by an unknown Talent. Now - be it power, danger, or love - the Rowan is about to meet her match. We will meet at 7 p.m. at the home of Pam Reinke-Walter. Please contact Pam by July 9 if you plan to attend.

This group meets the second Tuesday of each month and welcomes women members and friends of Community UU Church. The August selection is the Brookhaven College Common Book for 2010-2011, Picking Cotton: Our Memoir of Injustice and Redemption by Jennifer Thompson-Cannino, Ronald Cotton and Erin Torneo. Celebrating Rainforest: 4th - 8th grade - Celebrating Rainforests speaks to the UU 7th principle. Our fragile planet calls us to help children honor and care for it. This program is one answer to the call, and gives children a way to connect to our Earth and be empowered to help make a difference. We are experiencing tropical rainforests stories, video, discussions, meditations and hands-on activities to get to know rainforest animals, plant life, people, resources, and ways they can help.

Popcorn Theology: 9th - 12th grade – Our high-schoolers are watching movie clips and discussing our Unitarian Universalist principles as they reflect on the movies. Cool movies, great discussions, and fun supplemental activities!

Friday Night Flicks start at 7pm in founders hall.

July 9 - FRESH the movie, this will be shown in the sanctuary.

Co-sponsored by Social Action, this is a regional showing open to the community. FRESH introduces you to farmers, grocers and business owners who are leading the way toward an alternative process for growing, transporting and marketing food that emphasizes freshness and sustainability. See the cover article in this newsletter for details.

A little pig with big dreams teaches himself to be a sheepdog in this marvelous fantasy based on Dick King-Smith's children's novel "The Sheep-Pig." When an old farmer wins a piglet at a carnival by guessing its weight, he brings the oinker, named Babe, home. At first, the little animal feels confused and lonely. But a maternal collie, who just delivered her own litter, welcomes Babe into her family, and teaches him about farm life. Soon the precious pig proves that he can be a pretty valuable asset to the farmer and his wife--in a most unexpected way. Special effects allow the entire menagerie of farm animals to speak throughout this magical live-action tale

July 23 - MY BRILLIANT CAREER - 1979

My Brilliant Career is an Australian film featuring the acting debut of Judy Davis and the directing debut of Gillian Armstrong. The story is based on a 1901 autobiographical novel by 16-year-old Miles Franklin which chronicles the efforts of an independent-minded farm girl to fulfill her dream of becoming a writer. In this process, she must fend off a priggish suitor and deal with her attraction to a wealthy landowner (Sam Neill) who slowly but surely expresses his love for her.

Judy Davis is marvelously alive as the oddball heroine who vexes her mother, perplexes a rich grandmother, and sets off sparks at staid dinner parties and a formal affair. My Brilliant Career makes the best of a variety of stunning Australian landscapes but demonstrates its real beauty and clout as an inward journey into the soulscape of an artist determined to dance alone to the music of her own special muse.

ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: SUMMER COURSES

The Mission of the Adult Religious Education Program is to nurture and stimulate the religious and personal growth of the adult church community. We offer a varied and cohesive program within the context of the living Unitarian Universalist tradition and principles.

We offer a range of classes of interest to adults on weekday evenings throughout the year. Each evening, classes begin at 7 p.m. and end no later than 9 p.m. Our programs include our continuing Yoga and Meditation groups and a variety of topical classes. On Wednesdays beginning at 6 p.m., some people bring their own dinners to Founders Hall and enjoy the fellowship before participating in the evening's classes.

All classes begin at 7 p.m. CHILDCARE is available for all classes

Here is the current lineup.

WEDNESDAYJOHN ADAMS - Screened by Ian Rule

John Adams is a sprawling HBO miniseries event that depicts the extraordinary life and times of one of Americas least understood, and most underestimated, founding fathers: the second President of the United States, John Adams. Starring Paul Giamatti in the title role and Laura Linney as Adams' devoted wife Abigail, John Adams chronicles the extraordinary life journey of one of the primary shapers of our independence and government, whose legacy has often been eclipsed by more flamboyant contemporaries like George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Alexander Hamilton and Benjamin Franklin. Set against the backdrop of a nations stormy birth, this sweeping miniseries is a moving love story, a gripping narrative, and a fascinating study of human nature. Above all, at a time when the nation is increasingly polarized politically, this story celebrates the shared values of liberty and freedom upon which this country was built. The series won 13 Emmies (a record) and four Golden Globes.

Video/Discussion - 7 WEDNESDAYS through July 21

EYES ON THE PRIZE, PART 1 - Hosted by Robert Jackson

Eyes on the Prize tells the definitive story of the civil rights era from the point of view of the ordinary men and women whose extraordinary actions launched a movement that changed the fabric of American life, and embodied a struggle whose reverberations continue to be felt today. Winner of numerous Emmy Awards, a George Foster Peabody Award, an International Documentary Award, and a Television Critics Association Award, Eyes on the Prize is the most critically acclaimed documentary on civil rights in America.

YOGA Tracy Rosipal Course Fee - $5 per class

THURSDAYREV. DON FIELDING (RET.) PRESENTS ADVENTURES IN RELIGION

On July 1st Community UU Church will initiate a new kind of Adult Religious Education (ARE) class. It will be called Adventures in Religion, and it will be made-up of multiple Teaching Co. courses (e.g., this first set of classes will be made-up of Skeptics and Believers, Comparative Religion, and Philosophy of Religion). One of the innovative portions of these ARE classes will be the fact that they will be divided into short sections, four to five weeks long, with breaks in between, which will allow participants to join and/or exit the classes depending on their interest. Of course, some may wish to participate in all of the classes.

The classes will be a combination of videos (“Talking Heads”) and discussions, with emphasis on the discussion portion of each class. The discussions will be led by Rev. Don Fielding, a retired UU minister and a friend of Community UU Church. Each class will have one video to stimulate discussion, and will explore the thoughts and feelings the videos stimulate with the hopes for better understanding the adventure that is religion in general and each participant's understanding of religion in particular. Not only will this be a lasting adventure in education, but a wonderful opportunity for socially connecting and engaging with the church's members and friends as well. So mark your calendars and join us on July 1st.

Video/DiscussionVIPASSANA MEDITATION Clifton Rule

Clifton says, "Vipassana means insight into the nature of reality. It is a way of self-transformation through self-observation and introspection. Vipassana meditation is often referred to simply as "insight meditation." This is the backbone of our studies in Meditation on Thursday nights. We invite you, as a beginner or as a practiced meditator, to join us on our exploration. We view Buddhism not as a religion but rather as learning the process of meditation to reduce the suffering in our lives and in the world around us. We explore through readings, dharma talks, questions and answers, group discussions and meditation. Join us and explore this process as we all grow together."

Mark Rachel's Juggling Group, Sponsored by the Men's Fellowship, meets on Thursday evenings at 7 pm .
