Part-time Music Director Wanted

Community Unitarian Universalist Church in Plano seeks a part-time Music/Choir Director. Successful candidate will have experience directing and accompanying amateur choirs, have the ability to teach vocal technique, be proficient in a variety of musical styles, and have excellent communication and organizational skills. The church has about 200 members and about 12-20 choir members.

Duties include

- leading rehearsals on Wednesday nights from mid-August to late June
- conducting the choir and playing piano on two Sundays per month and two Christmas Eve services
- scheduling volunteer musicians for non-choir Sundays year-round
- general planning and leadership of the church music program
- co-planning an annual “pops” music fundraiser

This quarter-time, salaried position usually requires about 20-25 hours/month in choir rehearsals and performance (visible time), plus meetings, planning and solo rehearsal time. Benefits include paid vacation and use of church facilities for private instruction and recitals, as well as right of first refusal to accompany for weddings and funerals.

To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter explaining your qualifications to personnel@communityuuchurch.org. If you have questions, please send your questions to the same address or call Elena Westbrook at 972-740-7267.
