Rummage Sale Fundraiser. In a little over a week the Coming of Age and High School Youth classes will be hosting a rummage sale to raise funds for General Assembly and the Heritage Trip to Boston. Do you have furniture you don't like? Clothing you don't wear? Books you've read or toys you've outgrown? Knickknacks, office supplies, baby items, pots and pans, kitchen implements, tools, you name it! Save it for the rummage sale! Need boxes? We have a number of boxes of all sizes - just ask! Small boxes for the overabundance of jewelry in your jewelry chest. Medium boxes for books, DVDs, videotapes and CDs. Big boxes for games, puzzles, or toys. We even have bags for clothes! And of course, odd-shaped items like small kitchen appliances, lamps, baskets, and flower arrangements can be brought in just as is! If it's still useable, we'd like to sell it! You can bring in one item or a whole van full – we're grateful for everything you donate. Mark your calendars for the date of the sale is March 15 and 16. You can bring items in boxes and bags to Church on Sunday morning. Larger items are welcome the first two weeks of March. If you have questions or would like to schedule a donation pick-up, contact the youth advisors at: youthadvistorsCUUC@gmail.com.

Join 300 other UUs from across Texas to speak with our state legislators (House and Senate) to give them the collective voice of the Texas UU Justice Ministry (TXUUJM) regarding its priorities: Immigration Justice, Reproductive Justice, Economic Justice, Environmental Justice and Public Education.
